[Jun 17, 10:11 AM] martinthomasemo: @chris. currently it's free due to Covid-19, but normally it's paid. In the last part of the presentation today, there is a table with all the free/paid options for software.

[Jun 17, 10:11 AM] irvrhees: Hello from northern Utah USA.

[Jun 17, 10:11 AM] martinthomasemo: @chris, by far, Flat.io is one of the cheaper paid notation options

[Jun 17, 10:11 AM] Julie Anne: It is a brilliant collectionn!!! Thank you

[Jun 17, 10:12 AM] Rachel H: Downloaded that the other day!

[Jun 17, 10:12 AM] Rachel H: Awesome!

[Jun 17, 10:12 AM] Jenn Jenkins: @Chris The add-on in slides & docs is usually free. Flat.io for education is not usually free.

[Jun 17, 10:12 AM] martinthomasemo: @jenn yes, Katie is covering that in the 4th part of today.

[Jun 17, 10:13 AM] Chris Badger: @Jenn Jenkins thanks so much.

[Jun 17, 10:14 AM] Kim O: Are Katie's clip art images transparent?

[Jun 17, 10:14 AM] Gisela: Are there copyright issues with clipart?

[Jun 17, 10:15 AM] Joan: Bit late I think but here.

[Jun 17, 10:15 AM] Michelle Di Camillo: Katie's are yes. They're great.

[Jun 17, 10:15 AM] Becki Simone: I just downloaded Katie's and, yes they are transparent and are pngs

[Jun 17, 10:15 AM] Britt: Just what I was thinking Gisela, are there any copyright issues using these images?

[Jun 17, 10:15 AM] martinthomasemo: No they aren't transparent, but

Katie will talk about a work around when you use notation software.
[Jun 17, 10:16 AM] martinthomasemo: They aren't all transparent though @becki.
[Jun 17, 10:16 AM] Becki Simone: Ah. Thanks.
[Jun 17, 10:16 AM] martinthomasemo: Clipart are covered by creative commons generally.
[Jun 17, 10:16 AM] Kathy B: Sorry I'm late
[Jun 17, 10:17 AM] aga: If a TPT seller uses Midnight Music Notation Clipart – can the TPT seller just give credit to Midnight Music?
[Jun 17, 10:17 AM] Brenda Perrault Hunt: Sorry I'm late I had the times mixed up
[Jun 17, 10:18 AM] Lindsey H: Kansas – Grades K-5
[Jun 17, 10:18 AM] martinthomasemo: If you use her clip art to make some resources, then of course it would be really good to credit her.
[Jun 17, 10:18 AM] Margaret: Could you please repost the link? Thank you!
[Jun 17, 10:18 AM] Guest7230: how do you get the music fonts?
[Jun 17, 10:18 AM] martinthomasemo: @aga I'd also contact Katie as well to tell her that you're doing it.
[Jun 17, 10:18 AM] Debra Maurer: can you remind us of the link to notation links, please
[Jun 17, 10:18 AM] aga: Okay, just double checking if it is enough to just credit on the page
[Jun 17, 10:19 AM] martinthomasemo: www.midnightmusic.com.au/notationlinks
[Jun 17, 10:19 AM] Brenda Perrault Hunt: Newfoundland Canada
[Jun 17, 10:19 AM] aga: Thank you ! :)
[Jun 17, 10:19 AM] martinthomasemo: @aga – message katie to be sure, I can't speak for her!
[Jun 17, 10:19 AM] Guest9526: Do you recommend any particular music fonts?
[Jun 17, 10:19 AM] aga: I'm not a seller (YET ) but have been thinking about it :) Thanks for the advice
[Jun 17, 10:20 AM] Britt: Where can I find music fonts online? Thank you!
[Jun 17, 10:20 AM] martinthomasemo: @aga in the end, we often get support and help from many others, so I think it's good to acknowledge that.
[Jun 17, 10:20 AM] martinthomasemo: @britt – go to this link, and they are there www.midnightmusic.com.au/notationlinks
[Jun 17, 10:21 AM] Mrs M: Thank you for these summaries!
[Jun 17, 10:21 AM] Guest3209: NJ, USA; teaching music K-5.
[Jun 17, 10:21 AM] Guest1433: 👍
[Jun 17, 10:22 AM] Wil Brooks: Virgin Islands tuning in.
[Jun 17, 10:23 AM] Elyse: there's 5 beats in that measure!
[Jun 17, 10:24 AM] martinthomasemo: @elyse 10 points for you!
[Jun 17, 10:25 AM] Leta J: Can you adjust the spacing?
[Jun 17, 10:25 AM] Amanda Dawe Ledwell: could be useful for "find the error" exercises
[Jun 17, 10:25 AM] Simon Loveless: Useful if the exercise is 'find the mistake in this piece'
[Jun 17, 10:25 AM] ANGEL: Good day!!!
[Jun 17, 10:25 AM] martinthomasemo: No @leta J. But you can with section 3 of the presentation today. A good tip coming!

[Jun 17, 10:26 AM] Leta J: Thanks!

[Jun 17, 10:26 AM] Sean Breen: When I was at Stanford 30 years ago we line coded notation exactly the same way as these character fonts

[Jun 17, 10:26 AM] ANGEL: Watching from the Philippines! 🎵 🎵 🎵 🎵 🎵

[Jun 17, 10:26 AM] martinthomasemo: @sean Breen, you must be a wiz at doing it then!

[Jun 17, 10:26 AM] Janet: Hello from Arkansas

[Jun 17, 10:27 AM] Dee Nice Canada: Hi from Ontario, Canada

[Jun 17, 10:27 AM] K Alyward: Tuning in from Newfoundland, Canada. Hi D Hoven!

[Jun 17, 10:28 AM] Tina: Privacy issues for students in our school to use flat add-on [Jun 17, 10:28 AM] Amanda Dawe Ledwell: Hey K Alyward :) There's are few of us here from Newfoundland :) Nice to see everyone!

[Jun 17, 10:28 AM] martinthomasemo: @tina - meaning they can't install it? can't you do it as admin for the google suite?

[Jun 17, 10:28 AM] Carey Kobylecky Evosevich: It's blocked in my district as well. I'm hoping they will allow it next year.

[Jun 17, 10:28 AM] Tina: Admin wouldn't let me have the studetns use it because of their privacy policy

[Jun 17, 10:28 AM] Jeanne: We have to have our IT team install it

[Jun 17, 10:29 AM] martinthomasemo: @carey and @tina. That's really rough. Next you'll be telling me that Zoom is banned for use in your school.....

[Jun 17, 10:29 AM] Jenn Jenkins: @Martinthomasemo Flat is not a Google company so not included in the G Suite. Even YouTube is technically covered in the G Suite for Education contract.

[Jun 17, 10:29 AM] Tina: it is!

[Jun 17, 10:29 AM] Katharine: K Aylward, I think I am related to you, I am K Aylward!

[Jun 17, 10:29 AM] Carey Kobylecky Evosevich: @martin - We can still use that for now. lol

[Jun 17, 10:29 AM] Dianne in Oregon: Zoom IS banned for my school-- and I had the Flat add-on, and then they took it away.

[Jun 17, 10:29 AM] Gisela: Excuse the dumb question, but does that mean you can access the flat for docs on any computer then?

[Jun 17, 10:30 AM] Carey Kobylecky Evosevich: @Gisela - yes

[Jun 17, 10:30 AM] Guest7756: Can the person you share the google slides with see the flat notation without having that addon?

[Jun 17, 10:30 AM] Tina: yes

[Jun 17, 10:30 AM] Dianne in Oregon: @guest7756 yes

[Jun 17, 10:31 AM] Bonnie Shea: good question!

[Jun 17, 10:31 AM] martinthomasemo: I really feel for all of you in the USA that are restricted by 19thC education policy. Sounds like you need to get some more music teachers in the decision-making education areas.

[Jun 17, 10:31 AM] Tina: I wanted to create an assignment for them to create rhythms using flat and admin wouldn't allow [Jun 17, 10:31 AM] martinthomasemo: @guest7756 yes. but they can't edit etc.

[Jun 17, 10:32 AM] Katharine: Can you insert chords

[Jun 17, 10:32 AM] Shandra Dayton Prowell: It also doesn't work if you copy and paste it

[Jun 17, 10:33 AM] Shandra Dayton Prowell: Right. Once you make it and move on you can't edit old ones

[Jun 17, 10:33 AM] Theresa Stallings Turner: I've cropped the image and just redid the part I messed up.

[Jun 17, 10:33 AM] martinthomasemo: @katharine, not yet. but tomorrow they might add it. On the full blown version of Flat.io you can of course.

[Jun 17, 10:34 AM] Keli Brewer: Hello! From Sydney, Nova Scotia Canada. Thanks for providing these webinars :)

[Jun 17, 10:34 AM] martinthomasemo: @katherine the Flat.io help is by far one of the best for all of the browser-based notation software programs. <https://flat.io/help/en/music-notation-software/chords.html#:~:text=To%20start%20inputing%20chords%20above,shortcut%20Ctrl%2FCmd%2BK>.

[Jun 17, 10:34 AM] Katharine: Thanks for the link!

[Jun 17, 10:34 AM] Guest7230: I've been using flat software with my kids - i love it!

[Jun 17, 10:35 AM] Shandra Dayton Prowell: You can also do more than one row of text so the top row is the lyrics or solfege and the next row is the trick for spacing

[Jun 17, 10:35 AM] martinthomasemo: @shandra, you sound like a wizz!

[Jun 17, 10:36 AM] Shandra Dayton Prowell: I've used it a lot this year as our district stopped supporting Smart Notebook and I've gone all-in on Google

[Jun 17, 10:36 AM] musicwithmrst: Thanks for the tip, Shandra!

[Jun 17, 10:36 AM] Guest634: Where do we access "flat add on" ?

[Jun 17, 10:36 AM] Alexa: Does this flat method only allow the correct amount of beats per bar?

[Jun 17, 10:36 AM] Guest7230: yes

[Jun 17, 10:36 AM] Sean Breen: I've been on Finale since version 1

[Jun 17, 10:36 AM] Shandra Dayton Prowell: @Alexa: correct.

[Jun 17, 10:37 AM] Jenn Jenkins: Click ADD ON while in Docs or Slides. Search for Flat for Docs

[Jun 17, 10:37 AM] Jenn Jenkins: Three. More. Days!

[Jun 17, 10:37 AM] martinthomasemo: @guest634 there is a link in today's handout - in the chrome google add-ins. www.midnightmusic.com.au/notationlinks

[Jun 17, 10:37 AM] Carol McDaniel: Finale is awesome.

[Jun 17, 10:37 AM] Dawn Jones: Whats the easiest notation software?

[Jun 17, 10:38 AM] Christopher: MuseScore is free and very good for free software.

[Jun 17, 10:38 AM] Renee Wicker: What version of Sibelius o you have?

[Jun 17, 10:38 AM] Christopher: I think they are about to release MuseScore4

[Jun 17, 10:38 AM] Katharine: I have Finale PTSD from the 80s.

[Jun 17, 10:38 AM] Kristi: I've been using MuseScore, free is the right price for me, and I've managed to learn it pretty well.

[Jun 17, 10:38 AM] Chris Badger: @Christopher I am glad MuseScore works for you, it has stopped working for me.

[Jun 17, 10:38 AM] Jenny: I love using Sibelius. It has the option to copy and then paste into publisher which I mainly use.

[Jun 17, 10:39 AM] Sean Breen: Finale (and other NP) also work really well with DAW's and MIDI files.

[Jun 17, 10:39 AM] Kara Woods Hunnicutt: Sibelius user – I love the latest version. Can't remember what number it is now, but I've been using this for 12 years

[Jun 17, 10:39 AM] Christopher: I use Sibelius Ultimate for my own compositions but MuseScore at school.

[Jun 17, 10:39 AM] martinthomasemo: @dawn, depends. Personally, I've found new-to notation software music teachers here in NZ/Australia have found noteflight and notion. Muse score is quite ugly to use. Noteflight and Flat.io have great help tutorials. Notion was amazing for my students after being a solid Sibelius user for years. Sibliues and Finale are amazing, but most students/teachers will only use 20% of what they can do.

[Jun 17, 10:39 AM] Dianne in Oregon: I've had good success with Noteflight

[Jun 17, 10:39 AM] Renee Wicker: Thanks Kate!

[Jun 17, 10:39 AM] Carey Kobylecky Evosevich: MuseScore is easy and perfect for the beginner.

[Jun 17, 10:39 AM] Julie Duncan: When I've made the screenshot and put into Google docs the image isn't perfectly white and appears yellowed. I've tried to change the color options in docs, but it isn't a great solution.

[Jun 17, 10:40 AM] martinthomasemo: @julie, hmmm. Jump into the Flat.io help about that. I remember a thread about that last year.

[Jun 17, 10:40 AM] Carolyn Dillon : I feel silly for asking – am NOT tech savvy (which is why I am here!)

[Jun 17, 10:41 AM] Carolyn Dillon : When using clip art...how do you get the white "box" to go away from behind an image??

[Jun 17, 10:41 AM] Shandra Dayton Prowell: @Julie Duncan: There

[Jun 17, 10:41 AM] martinthomasemo: @carolyn, no worries. We all started (including katie and myself) not as tech savvy.

[Jun 17, 10:41 AM] Carey Kobylecky Evosevich: @Carolyn – We are all here to learn.

[Jun 17, 10:41 AM] Shandra Dayton Prowell: Oops: There's a website for getting rid of backgrounds on the Waklet for this webinar

[Jun 17, 10:41 AM] Nashira Pearl: are those advanced options in the upgraded personal versions?

[Jun 17, 10:41 AM] aga: Sorry if this was mentioned earlier – is there a handout we can follow on which we can write notes... or is this coming after the webinar is done?

[Jun 17, 10:41 AM] Chris Badger: I was looking for a notation app for my android and I found Crescendo. I do have to use it with a mouse.

[Jun 17, 10:42 AM] martinthomasemo: Notion has a blackfriday sale about 4 times a year. great to keep an eye on for students to purchase themselves.

[Jun 17, 10:42 AM] martinthomasemo: Notion on the ipad/android is great!

[Jun 17, 10:42 AM] Julie Duncan: @Shandra good to know!

[Jun 17, 10:42 AM] Jim Kotora: Notion also for iPad and has handwriting recognition. It is the only notion app I have found that is actually usable for iPad.

[Jun 17, 10:42 AM] Deborah Calhoun Boyd: Good to know!

[Jun 17, 10:43 AM] Sean Breen: Composers and arrangers can also use the notation sections in DAW's such as Digital Performer

[Jun 17, 10:43 AM] martinthomasemo: www.midnightmusic.com.au/notationlinks @aga notes are there to what she's done. The pdf of her handout will be in there within 24hrs.

[Jun 17, 10:43 AM] Margaret Anne Butterfield: Sibelius now has a subscription option for teachers.

[Jun 17, 10:43 AM] Carolyn Dillon : @Chandra thank you! I'll look for that!

[Jun 17, 10:43 AM] aga: thanks!

[Jun 17, 10:44 AM] Renee Wicker: Margaret Anne, I'm a friend of Paul C

[Jun 17, 10:44 AM] Guest Chris JL: Yay boomwhackers!

[Jun 17, 10:44 AM] Angela Johnson: Do you own Sibelius or are you using the subscription?

[Jun 17, 10:45 AM] musicwithmrst: Wow! Flat is doing amazing things!

[Jun 17, 10:45 AM] Amanda Dawe Ledwell: Was that in the free flat add on or the flat program?

[Jun 17, 10:45 AM] Renee Wicker: Angela, I own it

[Jun 17, 10:45 AM] Kim O: Does anyone know of software that has Orff instrumental icons?

[Jun 17, 10:46 AM] martinthomasemo: @kim, ah no. Perhaps try your local Orff group (or email/google them)?

[Jun 17, 10:46 AM] Angela Johnson: Did you purchase Sibelius as a download or Cd to install?

[Jun 17, 10:47 AM] Renee Wicker: Started with a CD then updated by download

[Jun 17, 10:47 AM] Brenda Shumway Griggs: Sibelius has orff scores

[Jun 17, 10:47 AM] martinthomasemo: @kim - there is an old-ish list here - <https://orff4all.wordpress.com/orff-with-technology/>

[Jun 17, 10:47 AM] martinthomasemo: @angela, it will be a download now. Even if you could find a CD version, it will need to be update to run with your modern computer operating system.

[Jun 17, 10:50 AM] Kathy Overall: I have found FLAT on my chromebook BUT there was no extension button. It looks like some of us need to contact IT district.???

[Jun 17, 10:52 AM] Julie Huff Corallo: I love her laugh!

[Jun 17, 10:52 AM] Bonnie Shea: I have an older version of Sibelius (7 or 9 I think) and there is an option within Sibelius where you can select (draw a box around) your notation you want to clip/copy and then there is a menu item to copy that image to the clipboard, then you can paste into a document

[Jun 17, 10:52 AM] Andrea: Cindy - is Notion 6 worth it?

[Jun 17, 10:53 AM] Kathleen Kampa Vilina: Great presentation. Thanks for all of the tips, Katie.

[Jun 17, 10:53 AM] Renee Wicker: I like using English Horn for SAT

[Jun 17, 10:54 AM] Bonnie Shea: Katie - love all the tips and tricks!

[Jun 17, 10:54 AM] martinthomasemo: If you're starting from nothing, Notion 6 is really good. I swapped from a school of Sibelius to Notion overnight. Never missed it. Kids able to do chords, guitar strumming, drum notation help etc, much quicker than sibelius.

[Jun 17, 10:54 AM] musicwithmrst: THANK YOU!

[Jun 17, 10:54 AM] Bonnie Bham AL: lots of info will need the replay!!

[Jun 17, 10:55 AM] martinthomasemo: to get a pd certificate for today - <https://midnightmusic.com.au/pdnotation>

[Jun 17, 10:55 AM] Karin McCartney: thank you!

[Jun 17, 10:55 AM] Julie Duncan: How do you make stick notation and/or rhythmic examples without the staff or staff line in software notation?

[Jun 17, 10:55 AM] Deborah Calhoun Boyd: Thank you, Katie! Packed with info, as always. Now I have homework!!

[Jun 17, 10:55 AM] Kathy Overall: Sorry, just saw your 3 steps. Kathy Overall from Mesa, AZ GM and orchestra.

[Jun 17, 10:55 AM] Kathy Davis Smith: Thank you! Already playing with Flat ;)!

[Jun 17, 10:56 AM] Linda Vasilaki : can I find the notehead names when notating within Noteflight or Flat or MusicScore?

[Jun 17, 10:56 AM] martinthomasemo: @julie, you can hide staves on sibelius. In notion I'd just make a single line and put it on that.

[Jun 17, 10:56 AM] Patty Callaghan: Thank you

[Jun 17, 10:56 AM] Kathy Davis Smith: I would love to have your insight on Seesaw!

[Jun 17, 10:56 AM] martinthomasemo: You can probably hide the stave in Finale - I'd google.

[Jun 17, 10:57 AM] Carey Kobylecky Evosevich: So excited about the Canva course!

[Jun 17, 10:57 AM] martinthomasemo: @leta J, within 24hrs.

[Jun 17, 10:58 AM] Francesca Veglia: We have the Promethean ActiveBoards and it is easy to cut and paste and scan things directly into a flipchart but when I need to create my own these programs might be a lot easier

[Jun 17, 10:58 AM] Linda: thank you , Katie!

[Jun 17, 10:58 AM] Batya L: I tried the link to /cbtr-enroll and it said error404 can't be found. I am excited about that course.

[Jun 17, 10:58 AM] Deborah Goodhead: Thank you Katie!

[Jun 17, 10:58 AM] Jennifer: Thanks Katie.

[Jun 17, 10:58 AM] Lisa K: I'm trying to crop the lyrics out of my flat add on image but it just shrinks the whole image even though I'm using the single crop arrow in the middle of the image not the corner arrow. Words won't crop out. Thanks.

[Jun 17, 11:36 AM] Jennifer Gillis: yes! Thank you!

[Jun 17, 11:36 AM] Jennifer Gillis: I will have to try Badgr!

[Jun 17, 11:37 AM] Jenn Jenkins: Flat.io is really responsive!

[Jun 17, 11:38 AM] Jenn Jenkins: Has anyone tested out the new Noteflight update?

[Jun 17, 11:38 AM] martinthomasemo: @jenn not yet. I don't think they will have broken it!

[Jun 17, 11:38 AM] Jenn Jenkins: Noteflight Learn with its newest feature of grading students playing/singing?

[Jun 17, 11:38 AM] Kristi Blair: @Jenn Jenkins Thanks!

[Jun 17, 11:39 AM] Susannah: Thanks Katie. How do you get rhythm with no stave or line in Sibelius?

[Jun 17, 11:39 AM] Laura Brock: I don't think Noteflight has the handsigns. If they do, it's something new.

[Jun 17, 11:40 AM] Lisa K: Yes did insert and still couldn't crop

[Jun 17, 11:40 AM] KatieW: <https://youtu.be/f5GepYb1PqE>

[Jun 17, 11:40 AM] Jenn Jenkins: Noteflight seems overwhelming to me.

[Jun 17, 11:40 AM] martinthomasemo: there is something in here too <https://midnightmusic.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2013/07/Sibelius-Layout-and-Formatting.pdf>

[Jun 17, 11:40 AM] Wendy R 1: Thank you again! Goodnight

[Jun 17, 11:41 AM] KaraV: Noteflight is awesome and can be integrated in LMS

[Jun 17, 11:41 AM] martinthomasemo: Opps, wrong link. to the Sibelius link.

[Jun 17, 11:41 AM] Susannah: great I got it! thanks!

[Jun 17, 11:41 AM] Sandra Fromi: Thank you!

[Jun 17, 11:42 AM] martinthomasemo: In a covid-19 teaching environment, browser-based notation is the future! and integration with Learning Management systems.

[Jun 17, 11:42 AM] Jenn Jenkins: SoundCheck – that is the new feature in Noteflight. Had to look that up.

[Jun 17, 11:42 AM] Jenn Jenkins: YES!!!!!! It has so many different things. It seems great, but everything that I would want costs money.

[Jun 17, 11:43 AM] martinthomasemo: I recommend making a cup of tea, and watching the basic how-to videos made by software companies before diving in. I do that to help decide which software to use.

[Jun 17, 11:43 AM] martinthomasemo: Software costs money to develop, to expect to pay for it.

[Jun 17, 11:44 AM] KaraV: Yes!!

[Jun 17, 11:44 AM] Guest2811: THANK YOU!!!! Good night

[Jun 17, 11:44 AM] Lisa K: Yes did that with the flat image but it just shrinks the whole thing

[Jun 17, 11:44 AM] Susannah: Anyone know which notation software integrates with Canvas LMS?

[Jun 17, 11:44 AM] martinthomasemo: Companies don't make money of education, they loose money, and it's not guaranteed that users will end up paying for it once they leave school.

[Jun 17, 11:44 AM] KaraV: Noteflight works in Canvas

[Jun 17, 11:44 AM] martinthomasemo: @susannah yes to noteflight

[Jun 17, 11:44 AM] Alexa: I can't believe I haven't come across your stuff until now! I opened up so many tabs to look into what you do and subscribed to your youtube. This was one of the best webinars I have attended since closure and am so thankful I saw this posted in a music facebook group. Your method of presentation was so clear and engaging and directly/easily applicable. I hope you do more specific and pointed topics like this. I find some presentations get so broad and spread thin that they aren't really helpful. Thank you!

[Jun 17, 11:45 AM] Susannah: great thanks

[Jun 17, 11:45 AM] Jenn Jenkins: @Martinthomasemo - I have done that. I tried multiple notation programs to find the one I liked the best. I have used the lower level of Finale years ago (until I couldn't update it anymore). For my students, I feel that Flat is the easiest though.

[Jun 17, 11:45 AM] Jim Kitora: Thanks!

[Jun 17, 11:45 AM] KaraV: We have it. Works great.

[Jun 17, 11:45 AM] Ralph I: I agree. Finale is what I learned first and so it's best for me. I've used Sibelius as well, and it's just a different flavor.

[Jun 17, 11:45 AM] barbara: Thank you!

[Jun 17, 11:45 AM] Eileen: Thank you for EVERYTHING...AND your cheerfulness.

[Jun 17, 11:45 AM] Lisa K: Re Flat. Yes I did use arrow like you did but mine is not acting the same. Odd

[Jun 17, 11:45 AM] Guest6342: Thank you! Our school year ends tomorrow so I'm looking forward to digging into more of your material. I've saved a few links! Thank you
